

Cleantech

December 21, 2009

Fremont-based Purfresh Inc. named Robert A. Hayes vice president of engineering. The company said Hayes has more than 25 years of engineering, operations and manufacturing experience, most recently as president and co-founder of Veraloft. Before that he was vice president of technology for Chroma Medical Systems. He also worked at Everex Systems Inc. and CellNet Data Systems.

